

Holistically Fit Squad FAQ

And how to get started

WHAT'S THE INVESTMENT

To enroll, you'll want to pick a welcome pack. The investment is either $109 or $209 depending on the combo you choose, plus a $19.95 enrollment fee. You are investing in the right to become a partner with Plexus.

DO I HAVE TO BUILD A TEAM OR PROMOTE PRODUCTS?

Nope! You can either share your referral link with others and help them receive all the perks of the squad, or simply enjoy your perks! Totally up to you!

WILL I RECEIVE TRAINING?

YES! You will have me as your personal mentor and we provide onboarding and weekly training for our community.

Bonus- we are the new wave of social selling... no more "HEY GIRL" messages!

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PLEXUS AND MLM?

There are substantial differences in the hybrid compensation plan that Plexus offers. Where many companies require you to build two teams on "balanced legs" in order to be paid generously, or are centered around a front-loaded compensation plan where you must buy an excessive amount of inventory to directly sell to your customers, Plexus allows you to build an infinite number of personally sponsored legs and pays generously on every one and you are never required to carry inventory or sell directly to customers. Everything can be done online, making it highly convenient for both you and your customers.

Social marketing the way it should be done, but rarely ever is.

HOW TO GET STARTED

1. If you are in the US click here.

If you're international click here then select your Country and Language in the top right corner and continue on to Step 2.
